OUR INTERNET SERVICE OPENS UP A WORLD OF POSSIBILITIES

As this school year begins, let's celebrate old friends reunited in the classroom and new possibilities explored at home.

With our super-fast internet, your household has access to virtually unlimited ways to learn. Transport your children to outer space, take them on safari, or make them feel like they're inside a famous painting. Social media builds connections and inspires creativity, and streaming videos offer lessons on any subject.

THE FOUNDATION FOR RURAL SERVICES

recently hosted a virtual 5K walk/run fundraiser. NEMR employees who volunteered to go the distance and support the philanthropic programs provided by FRS were Denise Cowan, Marcia McKim, Paula Linhart, Jennifer Chrisman, Justin Simmons, Michele Gillespie, Mendy Haines, and Lori Fleshman.

The FRS has a vital interest in helping rural communities grow and thrive. The FRS sends rural students on tours to Washington, D.C., provides scholarships, educational materials, and participates in other programs to support rural America. Learn more at frs.org.

DIRECTOR RETIRES

Ron Morlan, Zone 1, is retiring after 42 years of service. Ron has seen many changes in the telecommunications industry during his tenure. With his retirement, the board of directors' size will decrease to 8. Thank you Ron for your contribution in making NEMR Telecom the great cooperative it is today!

NEW EMPLOYEE

NEMR welcomes Travis Swarts as a line-man and he will work on special projects. Travis is no stranger to NEMR. During the last 12 years, he worked in engineering as crews laid fiber technology in eleven of our exchanges plus a couple of areas beyond our borders. He joins us with over 23 years of experience working all around the country in telecommunications. Travis lives in Bloomfield, Iowa but will be relocating to this area soon. He enjoys golfing, fishing and hunting.
