$1,000 SCHOLARSHIP

NEMR Telecom awards Hunter Yancy, a recent graduate of Clark County R-1, with a $1,000 scholarship to be used to further his education in telecommunications. Hunter is the son of Charles and Karen Yancy of Luray, Missouri. He plans to attend State Technical College of Missouri in the Fall.

Get your scenic photo on the cover of our 2021 Telephone Directory

To enter, email a photo to: contest@nemr.net

1. The photo must be an original, taken by a NEMR Telecom Customer and becomes the property of NEMR Telecom. 1 entry per household by July 31st.
2. The photo must be a scene from Northeast Missouri. Please do not send pictures of sunrises or sunsets because they are usually too dark for a phone book cover. We are looking for scenes from all seasons without people in the photo.
3. Photos must be submitted via email in a jpeg form, at least 5 Megapixels or 400-500 dpi.

WELCOME GRACEY GORDON of Green Castle, NEMR'S Summer Intern! Gracey graduated from Green City R-1 in May and will be attending NCMC this Fall. She is taking online courses as well as working at NEMR and her part-time job at Westlakes in Kirksville. Gracey plans to major in Political Science and eventually become a lawyer.

"I hope to gain a real understanding of how the world of communications works. I also am excited to be a part of a workplace that does so much for rural areas and communities," says Gracey.

THE FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION has launched a temporary program to help families and households struggling to afford internet service during the COVID-19 pandemic. The Emergency Broadband Benefit provides a discount of up to $50 per month toward broadband service for eligible households. Eligible households can enroll through a participating broadband provider or directly with the Universal Service Administrative Company (USAC) using an online or mail-in application. You can learn more about the benefit, including eligibility and enrollment information, by visiting www.fcc.gov/broadbandbenefit, or by calling 833-511-0311.
