TRY ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

In the March issue of The Buzz, we introduced you to AI. Below are some sites you can tryout for free. Since April is National Poetry Month, we asked ChatGPT to write a short poem about cats. The AI-generated poem below was written in less than three seconds!

*"In moonlit beams, they softly tread,
Graceful paws and whiskers spread,
With eyes that gleam in shadows deep,
Cats roam the night, while all world sleeps."*
